Lawful Authority

Parents

All parents have powers and responsibilities in relation to their children which can only be changed by a court order. The Children's Services Regulations 2009 refer to these powers and responsibilities as "lawful authority". It is not affected by the relationship between the parents such as whether or not they have lived together or are married.

A court order, such as under the Family Law Act, may take away the authority of a parent to do something or may give it to another person.

Guardians

A guardian of a child also has lawful authority. A legal guardian is given lawful authority by a court order. The definition of "guardian" under the Children's Services Act 1996 also covers situations where a child does not live with his or her parents and there are no court orders. In these cases, the guardian is the person the child lives with who has day-to-day care and control of the child.

ARE YOU ENTITLED TO GOVERNMENT ASSISTANCE? (CCS)

Caulfield South Community House is a Child Care Subsidy (CCS) approved Child Care Provider. CCS is a payment made by the Australian Government to help families with the cost of a quality child care and Early Learning Service. This subsidy is paid directly to CSCH to reduce your fortnightly fees.

Some basic requirements must be satisfied for an individual to be eligible to receive the Child Care Subsidy. These include:

- The age of the child (must be 13 or under and not attending secondary school)
- The child meeting immunization requirements
- The individual, or partner, meeting the residency requirements

Three levels of testing will determine a family's level of Child Care Subsidy

1. A Family's combined income will determine the percentage of subsidy they are eligible to receive
2. An activity test will determine how many hours of subsidized care families can access
3. The type of child care service will determine the hourly rate cap.
