

Caulfield South Community House

WELSH CLASS

Tafod y Cymry' (The Tongue of the Welsh) holds this class for experienced Welsh learners and native speakers wishing to reconnect with their mother tongue.

Together the group chat, read and translate poetry, prose and songs (which they then enjoy singing!) Some grammar is covered and a bit of history researched.

Mondays 1.00pm – 3.00pm

Cost: $102 annual fee (or $3.00 per class)

WELSH TRANSLATING GROUP

A team of 5 native welsh speakers based at the Community House and partnering with the State Library of Victoria to translate the Welsh language contents of the important 19th Century diaries of Joseph Jenkins (The Welsh Swagman).

Join us for fun, friendship and satisfying work.
